

I am not a NJ resident, however, I am hoping that my state will make a simalier law. Just because we did business with a firm in some manner does not give them the right to contact us if we do not want to be contacted.